HARTFORD, CT (December 7, 2012) – The Connecticut Convention Center recently named Emily Borders as its new Catering Sales Manager. In her role, Emily will be responsible for soliciting new accounts, nurturing and growing existing client relationships, and onsite management of client programs.

Emily began working at the Convention Center in January 2011 as Operations Coordinator and quickly excelled in her role, earning a promotion after only two months. Emily holds a Bachelor's Degree in Communication and Sports Management from Eastern Connecticut State University in Willimantic, CT.

“Emily has exhibited great pride and organization as she successfully managed numerous client events,” says Michael Costelli, General Manager of the Convention Center. “Her experience will translate well to her new role in sales, where she will continue to grow and succeed.”
